RNA Drops presentation
Take responsibility for your own acceptance or rejection of the Drops.
Self-Sabotage of Healing - claiming Drops not working
People are arguing for their limitations in physical health.
What comes out of your mouth negatively effects you, if it's arguing for your limitations.
If a person is determined to consistently in their less than position, nothing can shake them loose off that.
Your perception of you is your reality and your truth.
If you want it to be different, we can talk about it.
Don't impose myself on anyone's reality.
Someone has to ask me a question.
RNA Drops is a realization of the process of perfection exists.
Block people put up is not letting their mind go.
Have gratitude for what's working instead of complaining about what you don't have that you think you want.
Circulatory system as an area of impact.
Blood, heart, blood pressure, facial glow, lymbic system, the Guf
High blood pressure and will set out to cure it.
Too much attention and stress on the blood pressure.
To work with that I'd get people on ReMag and ReLyte right from the beginning.
Something that is difficult to manipulate when you don't know how drops are working.
With magnesium I think I know how it's working with the smooth muscles of the blood vessels.
Perfect cells are being created - healthier heart and blood cells. But, if you bring your mind into the equation, it's almost like we put the imprint of the high blood pressure into the perfect cells we are creating.
How to relax and allow while you are perfect yourself.
Acknowledge what you have is working and then look forward to something better.
Overlay the confidence of what you are doing for yourself over what you think is not perfect.
Testimonials are amazing regarding heart improvements.
People are looking for spectacular testimonial.
Six medications after heart attack, some of which you don't need.
Doctors are saying that magnesium interferes with the drugs.
They are so removed from nutrients the body needs.
If you haven't learned it in medical school, it's not worth knowing.
Drug reps are the new educators of doctors.

Dieticians do what the doctors tell them to do.
Weight is all about your mind chatter.

34:40 GMO Food and RNA Drops
Microwave Food and RNA Drops
Naturopath doing extensive testing of people on RNA Drops with GMO problems. He feels Drops are neutralizing effects of GMOs.
Listen to your body.
Ongoing panic about GMOs does not represent freedom.
We have an amazing capacity in our cells with the Drops to interact with all environments and toxins.
Reframes what you think about GMOs, junk food, and so on.

37:47 Weight Loss, food, and grounding
Eating a lot more and losing weight.
About 20 lbs overweight and am losing while eating.

38:37 Mercola's article by registered dieticians.
Sponsored by all junk food companies.
Going state by state to try to make it illegal for anyone but a registered dietician to talk to you about your food.
We don't have to be involved in this system.
Have compassion for those mixed up in the system.
Allergic reaction to plywood; itchy during the day; welts all over my body
Plywood have formaldehyde in it. Having a reaction most likely.
Thought it might be magnesium.
Why would it be that? Magnesium wouldn't cause an allergic reaction.
Fans, windows open. Gas it off.
Clay products around for absorbing toxins; baking soda around to absorb toxins.

44:55 The Magnesium Miracle
Eczema and Magnesium
Knowing and listening to yourself
Intuition and knowing is stronger.
On blood pressure medications and want to get off.
Protocol is going to take care of that problem.
Doctor said blood pressure meds for the rest of my life.
Statins cause hormonal issues.
Mind gets anxious because we are living a lie.
Everything they have you taking is killing your magnesium which binds you to taking the meds.
Building perfect cells will take care of me.
You'll eventually take the Drops because you love them and want more.
